Daughters of the Confederacy Preparing for Largely Attended Convention.

FLAG FOR FIRST REGIMENT

Opening Services Will Be Held on Tuesday Night, When Presentation Will'Take Place.

The eighteenth annual convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, which begins on Tuesday night and continues through Friday, will probably be the most largely attended convention in the history of the association. There will be at least 360 delegates from out of town chapters, and as many alternates, besides representatives of affiliated organizations. A full program for the entertainment of the visitors has been arranged, and the doors of all the city will be opened to them during their stay. Luncheon will be served to them at the Second Baptist Church. A reception will be tendered the visitors at the Home for Needy Confederate Women from 5 to 7

Needy Confederate Women from 5 to 7 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, and ile formal reception of delegates will be held at 9 o'clock on Wednesday night. Mrs. Thomas S. Bocock, honorary president of the Richmond Chapter, will be the hostess.

First Public Meeting.

The opening exercises of the convention will begin at 8 o'clock on Tuesday night in the City Auditorium. Lieutenant-Governor J. Taylor Ellyson will deliver an address of welcome on the part of the State in behalf of Governor Liann, who will be unable to attend. Acting Mayor William H. Adams will welcome the visitors in behalf of the city, and Mrs. N. V. Randolph, president of the Richmond Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will deliver the address of welcome in behalf of the hosts.

The feature of the exercises will be the presentation of a beautiful flag to the First Virginia Regiment in memory the First Virginia Regiment in memory of its members who died on the field of battle. The flag will be presented by Mrs. A. A. Campbell, of Wytheville, president of the Virginia Division, and will be accepted in behalf of the regiment by Major Lawrence T. Price, commanding. A fine musical program, has been arranged. The High School chorus, under direction of Professor Mercer, will render several songs, which will be supplemented by Miss Cobb, a talented violinist and a pupil of the Peabody School of Music, in Baltimore. As such a large crowd is expected, it is urged upon all delegates to wear their hadges. The lower floor of the auditorium has been reserved for the veterans from the Soldiers' Home, members from the Home for Confederate Women, and representatives of the different Confederates.

members from the Home for Confederate Women, and representatives of the different Confederate organizations. The gallery will be open to the public. Seats will be reserved for the soldiers of the First Regiment, and for the Richmond Light Infantry Blues, who will act as escort to the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

All the business sessions will be held in the auditorium of the Jefferson Hotel. Delegates and alternates must obtain their badges from the credentials committee. These badges will entitle all members of the convention to all entertainments. The delegates will be well cared for, and a committee will meet all trains and take them to the homes assigned to them. The Woman's Club will have its doors open to the visitors constantly during their stay here, and the Confederate Museum will be open every day between a constant of the solutions. will be open every day between 9 o'clock in the morning and 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Wallace has been employed for seven years by the Virginia Railway and Power Company as conductor on the street railway. For two years has had an awful lot of trouble with his stomach and bowels; a pain in lower right side; was told he had appendicitis; bowels would bloat to an awful size; felt like something gnawing at navel or was eating away his insides. Sometimes the pain was so bad he had mustard plasters put on his bowels: was taking everything he could get, but nothing he had ever tried did not seem to benefit him. Barrie, Woman-Hater, and Corelli, Man-Scorner, Are Much Together.

MARIE CORELLI.

London, September 27 .- Sir James Barrie and George Bernard Shaw had a rather doleful meeting at the Adelphi Hotel, where they both live, the other morning. They both agreed that the dramatic critics who abused their new plays, "Androcles and the Lion" and "The Adored One," were a pretty trashy outfit. Both playwrights have left town, Barrie retreating to his Scottish home, Killiecrankie Cottage, which nestles amid sombre hills in Perth-

The cottage, only recently rented by Barrie, is the basis of much amusement in London literary circles; a most surprising romance may spring out of the new tenancy. It formerly belonged to Marie Corelli, of whose work Barrie cannot be said to be a great admirer. They had occasion to exchange correspondence over certain matters connected with the cottage, which resulted in a personal meeting in the town.

Miss Corelli was present at the first night of "The Adored One" as the author's guest, and his friends say the shy dramatist, who has been almost a woman hater since his divorce, has shown himself most affable towards the fair, plump Marie, who has expressed sentiments of admiration for Parrie which are not in accordance with her usual scorn for all things masculine. masculine.
This rather incongruous literary friendship excites much interest, and further developments are anxiously

SEARCH FOR HUSBAND

Badly Decomposed Body of Wife Is Found in Cornfield.

Peru, Ind., September 27.—While cutling corn in a field near Cassville, south of Peru, late yesterday afternoon farm hands found a new grave, and upon investigation it was learned that it contained the badly decomposed body of Mrs. Clyde Wilkinson, forty years old.

She had been missing since August 29. About that time her husband had a public sale, and it was said here that he disappeared. As neither was seen in that vicinity it was presumed they had gone away together.

Sheriff Frank Hostetter and Coroner M. L. Wagoner were notified and have started an investigation.
